State WHO Award Rules for Nomination

The State WHO Award is bestowed upon a member whose leadership, acts, and support have had a positive local, state, and/or national impact on public education.

The Redwood Service Center rules for nominating a State WHO nominee have changed. Following are the rules for which judging a State WHO award is now based:

1. Nominations shall be submitted to the Service Center Council Awards Committee by the Chapter
2. Any CTA member is eligible for nomination
3. Nominees are considered on the following bases:
  - a. The member has rendered exceptional professional/education service in two or more of these categories
    - i. Local governance bodies/committees
    - ii. CTA governance bodies, committees, Service Center Council, and task forces
    - iii. NEA governance bodies
  - b. A member need not have won a chapter WHO award to be eligible for the CTA State WHO Award
  - c. A member may receive the State WHO Award only once
  - d. Only one State WHO Award may be selected annually from Redwood Service Center
4. The use of a point system is required in the selection of the State WHO Award recipient. A minimum of one hundred seventy-five (175) points is necessary for consideration.

Submit nominations to Tina McKenzie tmckenzie@cta.org

No later than April 1
